A maximum of 288 wrestlers, 96 men for Freestyle Wrestling, 96 women for Women's Wrestling and 96 men for Greco-Roman Wrestling, can take part in the Wrestling competition.

Rules

The Wrestling competition will be held in accordance with the edition of the UWW International Wrestling Rules that is in force at the time of the Games.

The Rules are available at www.unitedworldwrestling.org.

The application of the UWW Rules to the European Games and to all international competitions under the control of UWW is compulsory.

Clothing and Equipment

Clothing and equipment used by athletes and other participants in the Wrestling competition must comply with the following documents:

- UWW International Wrestling Rules available at www.unitedworldwrestling.org;
- MINSK 2019 Advertising, Demonstrations and Propaganda Guidelines, available on the MINSK 2019 NOC EXTRANET (www.extranet.minsk2019.by).

In the case if the UWW International Wrestling Rules contradict with the MINSK 2019 Advertising, Demonstrations and Propaganda Guidelines, the MINSK 2019

Advertising, Demonstrations and Propaganda Guidelines will be prevailing.

Competition Format

For all Medal events, a direct elimination system will be used to produce two (2) finalists who will compete for the Gold Medal. All Wrestlers who lose against either of the finalists at any stage of the competition, up to and including the Semi-Finals, will contest a Repechage, which will take place after the Semi-Finals and before the Gold Medal bout. The winners of the two (2) Repechage groups will each be awarded Bronze Medals, with the losers of these Bronze Medal bouts awarded an equal fifth place.
